

E A R L H A M
SCHOOL of RELIGION

A Call for Applications for the
Tom Mullen Ministry of Writing Fellowship

Application Deadline: October 10, 2011

The Earlham School of Religion is currently accepting applications from those interested in the Tom Mullen Ministry of Writing Fellowship for the 2011-2012 Academic Year.

The recipient of the Fellowship will spend the Spring Session (January through May, 2012) at ESR working on a “publishable” manuscript while attending a Ministry of Writing class. The Fellowship awards $1,500 to be used toward living expenses and tuition or audit fee (tuition is $1191, audit fee is $350.) You need not be a current ESR student to apply, but you do have to attend a class on campus.

Details on recipient responsibilities, other Fellowship provisions, and the Application can be found in the attached documents.

Please submit your application and details of your writing project via mail, email or fax by October 10, 2011 to:

Earlham School of Religion
Financial Aid Office
228 College Avenue
Richmond, IN 47374
Fax: 765-983-1688
Email: crowetr@earlham.edu

Contact Tracy Crowe with questions. 765-983-1540, crowetr@earlham.edu

The Fellowship recipient will be announced at the Writer’s Colloquium, November 4-5, 2011. For more info on the Colloquium go to <http://esr.earlham.edu/news-events/events/writers2011>

TOM MULLEN MINISTRY OF WRITING FELLOWSHIP

E A R L H A M
SCHOOL of RELIGION

APPLICATION

Date of Application Request: _____ Spring Session of Academic Year: 2011-12

GENERAL INFORMATION

Full Name _____

(Last) (First) (MI)

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone Number: _____ E-mail: _____

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

(Institution granting your baccalaureate degree)

Name & Location of Institution	Dates of Attendance	Degree or Diploma: Year Received
-----------------------------------	------------------------	-------------------------------------

If Society of Friends, Monthly or Yearly Meeting _____

REFERENCE

(A person who is personally acquainted with you such as a teacher, pastor, employer, friend.)

Name: _____ Contact Info: _____

WRITING PROJECT

Please describe the publishable writing project on which you will work while at ESR. A brief chapter outline will be most helpful, as well as sample of your writing.

Return via mail, email or fax by October 10, 2011 to:

EARLHAM SCHOOL OF RELIGION
Financial Aid Office
228 College Ave.
Richmond IN 47374 or
Fax: (765) 983-1688 or
Email: crowetr@earlham.edu

E A R L H A M
SCHOOL of RELIGION

TOM MULLEN MINISTRY OF WRITING FELLOWSHIP

The Fellowship recipient spends the Spring Session at ESR working on a “publishable” manuscript while attending one Ministry of Writing class. Attendance on campus is required.

A. Recipient covenants:

1. Writing Related:
 - a. Provide ESR a copy of the work completed by the end of the semester
 - b. Provide a report at the end of the term on “What I learned about the Ministry of Writing and accomplished on my manuscript”
 - c. Acknowledge ESR in the book when the manuscript is published
 - d. Send ESR five copies of the published book for its archives
2. Take one Ministry of Writing class for credit or audit
3. Participate in community life
 - a. If a new student, attend Spring Semester Orientation
 - b. Attend a welcome reception in your honor to introduce the community to your writing project
 - c. Schedule a final presentation to the community of your writing project
 - d. Other activities as desired (Meeting for Worship, lectures, etc)
4. Pay a $75 dollar technology fee to ESR

B. ESR provides:

1. $1,500 to be used toward living expenses and tuition or audit fee
2. $ 278 worth of waived fees: Application (if new student) ($35), Parking ($40), Registration ($125), Common Meal ($78)
3. Designation of a locked space in an ESR building for use as a study, furnished with a bookshelf, table, floor lamp, chair and desk lamp
4. Paid membership to the Earlham College Wellness Center ($100)
5. Use of Lilly Library

Note: ESR does not provide the technology fee of $75 per semester. (Recipient Responsibility)

C. Miscellaneous

1. Information/new student packet from admissions will be sent to recipient that includes housing possibilities if needed/requested
2. Recipient will be set up with a student “mentor” if not known to community
3. The recipient is encouraged to write Thank You notes to the Mullen family (names and addresses will be provided)
4. Application deadline is October 10, 2011
5. The recipient will be announced at the Writer’s Colloquium, November 4-5, 2011